

This is a process that can remove the oil with air flotation equipment from the sewage in the tank so as to further clean the sewage.