

This is Secondary (Biological) Treatment, which is used to remove organic matters and part of the nutrients. It is a fill-and-draw activated sludge treatment system.