

This is the Vortex Grit Trap. Its turbine moves slowly to separate large solids, grease and grit from the sewage in order to protect the downstream treatment process.