

The sewage treatment includes filtration, using activated carbon and clay to remove smell, insoluble impurities. The pebble and sand is used to supply the clay above.