

Life-wide Learning Sharing (5C)

CHAU KWAI HIM ERIC

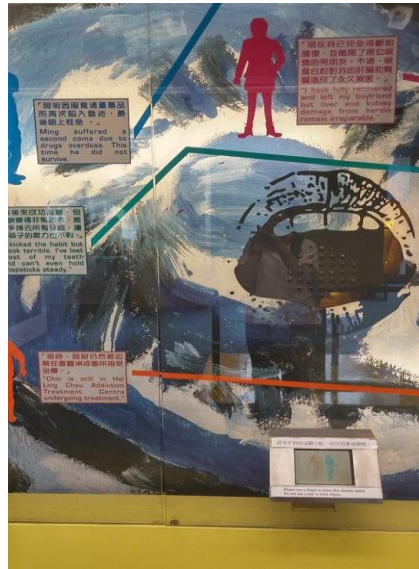

It is a photo about Ecstasy, which is a kind of stimulant. The picture tells us what are Ecstasy, how to take and the harmful effects like multiple organ failure.

CHEUNG KA WING

This photo the apparatus for taking heroin. It is commonly smoked together with a cigarette. It can be heated and the fume can be inhaled.

FUNG WING KI

A wall showing the consequences brought by drugs.

IP PIK YU

This display board introduces a drug – cough medicine. It can be good as it cures coughing, however, the abuse of cough medicine can cause harm us.

LAM WING TUNG

This is a wall which has some cases of the past drug abusers, and this gave me a shock about the seriousness of impact caused by drug abuse.

LAU KEI TUNG

This is the apparatus used to take in heroin. It can either be inhaled through a paper or aluminum foil roll or dissolve in water and inject the solution to body.

LEE WAI HO

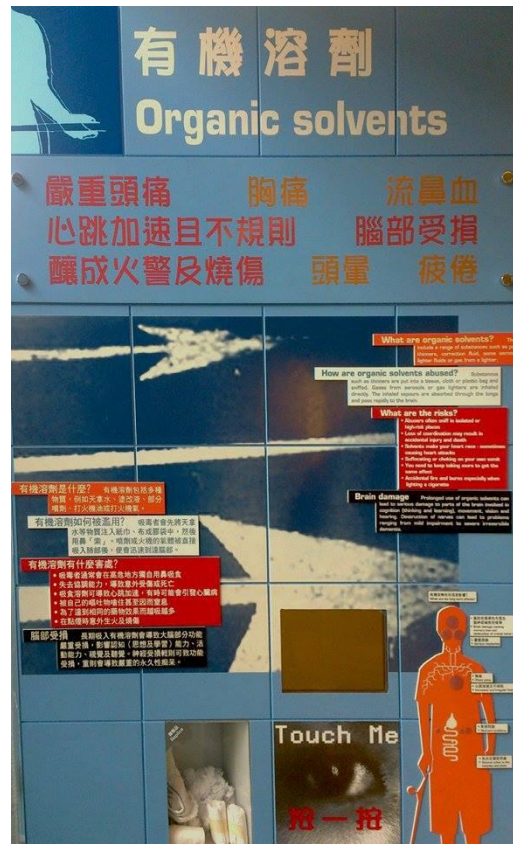

The bottle and the packaged drink are used for the intake of 'Ice'. The 'Ice' is heated up and vaporized and inhaled by the drug users.

TSUI SIU WING

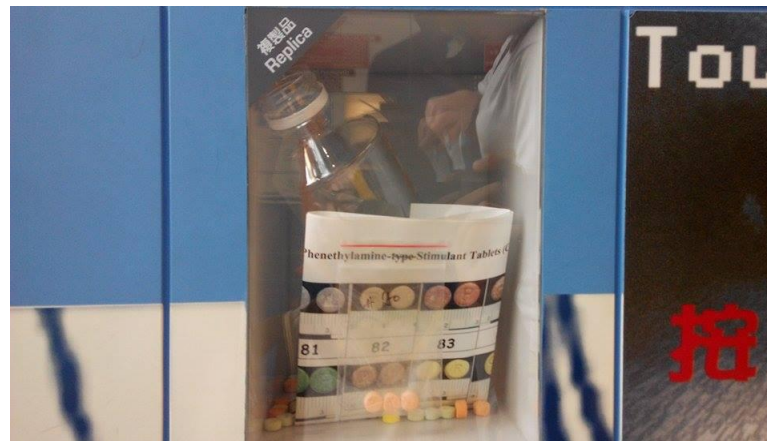

Through this we can experience the effect of taking drug by the driving game. We found that after taking drug, hardly can we control ourselves properly.

WAN WING SIZE

Organic solvents, such as thinners and correction fluid, are put into a tissue or cloth and sniffed. The inhaled vapors can cause serious damage to the brain.

WONG CHING HUNG

This is a replica of ecstasy which can cause the drug user keep on dancing and died of dehydration and body overheating finally.

YIM OI YAN

Methamphetamine hydrochloride, which is commonly known as “ice”, is usually smoked using a self-made smoking device. The user heats up the “ice” crystals and then inhales the filtered vapours.